HOUSE RULES

The offering of swing tips is strictly prohibited - in the words of Arnold Palmer, "Swing your swing."

Free-drops - all dropping must be done so within the confines of the nearest point of relief (just to the left of the bar).

Trash-talking is encouraged and will come in very handy in either the UG Team League or UG Pairs - ask your caddy for details.

Shouts of "Baba boeey" and "mashed potato" are likely to be greeted with furrowed brows and a mid-level insult.

Pro's Tips

Hole 1 - Beavertown Gamma Ray (Tottenham Hale, London)

A great opening Beer, Beavertown's signature brew. This American pale ale is a corker. Tee this up and you will enjoy lots of juicy malts and huge tropical aromas of mango and grapefruit. Brewed in Tottenham Hale just 12,000 yards away.

Hole 2 - Beavertown Neck Oil (Tottenham Hale, London)

An easy 2nd beer, Beavertown have created this every day, all day, easy drinking, go to IPA. This beer is light, crisp and punchy, A true gem of a beer.

Hole 3 - Beavertown Lupuloid (Tottenham Hale, London)

The most notable thing about this 6.7% IPA is that it is a straight up IPA, no funny business, just malt, yeast, water and hops. Lots of hops.

Hole 4 - Redchurch Bethnal Pale Ale (Bethnal Green, London)

An inspiring blend of English malts and American Hops, this is a big juicy fruit packed pale ale.

Hole 5 - Redchurch Shoreditch Blonde (Bethnal Green, London)

A truly international combination of English lager malt, German yeast and a unique blend of American Hops. This a moreish and extremely drinkable blonde lager.

Hole 6 - Redchurch Brick Lane Lager (Bethnal Green, London)

Cold fermented lager combining British lager malt, American hops and true lager yeast to create a truly crisp, refreshing beer. Pale and dry with overtones of citrus fruit with huge grassy freshness.

Hole 7 - Fourpure Pils (Bermondsey, London)

Reimagining of a classic German Pilsner. Generous hopping with Mittel-fruh and Saaz gives this beer a delightful floral and spicy aroma. The finish is dry, crisp, and refreshing.

Hole 8 - Fourpure Session IPA (Bermondsey, London)

The transatlantic influence of American brewing. A beer inspired by big, bold hops in an easy drinking, sessionable package. Citra, Galaxy, Mosaic, Ahtanum, and Crystal hops to deliver a powerful hit of exciting hop character.

Hole 9 - Camden Hells (Camden, London)

Hells is the lovechild of two German beer styles, Helles and Pilsner. This clean, crisp lager is one of the most refreshing tipplers in London.

Hole 10 - Kernel Table Beer (Bermondsey, London)

Super light IPA full of flavoured hoppiness that never overpowers. This is an amazing session IPA that makes for a delightfully drinkable treat.

Hole 11 - Kernel India Porter (Bermondsey, London)

In our opinion, there are not many brewers that can compete with the IPA's and pale ales that the Kernel brewery produces, but the export stout gets a lot less praise than it deserves. Lots of coffee and liquorice create an endlessly drinkable dark beer.

Hole 12 - Corona Extra (Mexico)

Needs very little by way of introduction. Crisp, clean and refreshing - add a wedge of lime. Probably the easiest drinking beer on the course.

Hole 13 - Kona Castaway (Kailua-Kona, Hawaii)

Take a sip of this copper-coloured IPA and you'll taste bold, citrusy hops with a touch of tropical mango and passion fruit, balanced by the rich caramel malts. Castaway IPA has a clean, crisp finish that's as refreshing as the wind in your face on a seaside links.

Hole 14 - Kona Longboard (Kailua-Kona, Hawaii)

Longboard is a smooth refreshing lager fermented and aged for weeks at cold temperatures to yield its exceptionally smooth flavour. A delicate, slightly spicy hop aroma complements the malty body of this beer.

Hole 15 - Kona Big Wave (Kailua-Kona, Hawaii)

Kona wanted to make a beer that went down easy after a day out on the links. This is just the ticket. Big Wave is a lighter bodied golden ale with a tropical hop aroma and flavour - a smooth, easy drinking refreshing ale. The use of caramel malt contributes to the golden hue of this beer and their special blend of hops provides a bright quenching finish.

Hole 16 - Tiny Rebel "Cwtch" (Newport, Wales)

Probably the best word ever. Cwtch (rhymes with butch) can mean either cuddle or cubbyhole. Grab a glass, relax and cwtch up with this untraditional Welsh red ale - a perfect blend of six "caramelly" malts and three citrusy American hops. Champion beer of Briton 2015.

Hole 17 - Tiny Rebel "FUBAR" (Newport, Wales)

The flagship pale ale and a firm favourite. Classic American hops give an edge to this traditional style British beer. A huge relief from the boring brown stuff that has filled Britain's pint glasses for far too long.

Hole 18 - Samuel Adams Boston Lager (Boston, USA)

When Jim Koch left his corporate job to start a brewery, people told him he was crazy. But after tasting that first batch of Samuel Adams Boston Lager in his kitchen, he knew he had something that just might prove his doubters wrong. A crisp clean hoppy end to your round at Urban Golf.
